

NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY OF INSTITUTIONAL AND FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION

Why Am I Receiving This Notice?

SSAG is required by federal law to annually make available certain consumer information to enrolled students. You are receiving this email to notify you what information is available and where you can find it on the SSAG website. You can receive the following information as a paper copy by emailing finaid@ssag.edu or by sending a letter to: Summit Salon Academy - Gainesville, Financial Aid Office, 6915 Northwest 4th Boulevard, Suite B, Gainesville, FL 32607.

For clarification of this disclosure, Summit Salon Academy - Gainesville defines the following terms:

- Academic Year: “a pre-determined number of clock hours and a subsequent pre-determined number of weeks to complete the technical program or certificate. At SSAG an academic year occurs every 900 hours and 30 weeks.”
- Annually: “once during the current calendar year.”

This notice provides you with a summary of SSAG Institutional and Financial Aid Information. The complete HEA Consumer Information disclosure list and links can be accessed at <http://www.ssag.edu/consumer-information-2/> and includes the following topics:

Contact Information for Assistance in Obtaining Institutional or Financial Aid Information

Contains a list of designated officials and/or departments and operating hours for obtaining more detailed information about the Consumer Information topics.

General Institutional Information

Contains information about; 2) copyright infringement; 3) computer use and file sharing; 4) nondiscrimination policies; 5) federal protection rights for an individual’s privacy of certain records including FERPA; 6) specific data for college comparison including college navigator tool, cost of attendance, net price calculator, educational programs including course catalog, accreditation, course descriptions, graduation requirements, faculty and staff, instructional facilities; and 7) student responsibilities.

Health and Safety Information and Policies

Contains information to ensure the health and safety of the campus community and includes 1) drug and alcohol abuse prevention program; 2) reporting required by the campus; 3) sexual misconduct policy; 4) information for crime victims about disciplinary proceedings; and 5) vaccination policy.

Student Financial Assistance

Contains basic financial aid information including 1) assistance available from federal, state, local and institutional programs, procedures to apply, and forms for applicants; 2) federal student financial aid penalties for drug law violations; 3) how cost of attendance budgets are calculated; 5) provisions for books and supplies policy for eligible students including textbook information; 6) requirements, if selected for verification; 7) satisfactory academic progress (SAP) for financial aid students; and 8) student loan information including entrance and exit loan counseling for student borrowers, and code of conduct for education loans.

Student Outcomes and Employment

Contains information 1) required by the Student Right-to-Know Act including student body graduation rates and retention rates, 2) available career and job placement services; 3) job placement statistics; and 4) gainful employment disclosures.

Other Disclosures

Contains information for obtaining a Florida voter registration form and SSAG's observance of Constitution Day every Sept. 17.

Other Disclosures that SSAG is exempt from providing because we do not offer programs or on-campus housing: These requirements include the 1) comprehensive transition and postsecondary program; 2) fire safety policies, fire statistics and fire log; 3) missing person procedures; 4) teacher preparation program report; and 5) types of graduate and professional education in which the school's graduates enroll.

This page contains disclosure information required for Compliance of Title IV regulations.